Financial Report – Lion Fred was not at the meeting so no financial report was presented. Lion Hal discussed the spaghetti supper account.

Spaghetti Supper: Saturday, February 9, 2013. As of the Board meeting, Lion Hal has deposited $1,420 in ticket sales. He continues to stress the importance of selling tickets and knows the members are selling the tickets. As he is traveling during the month of January and won't be able to attend our meetings, he asks that any ticket sales money be given to Lion Sandy Griffin.

Lion Hal spoke with the Dyess We Care Team, and they will offer their assistance. Lion Hal also spoke with United grocery about the hamburger meat, and we are set for 200 pounds of meat.

Lion Hal is asking for a supply inventory from those who have supplies at their homes. He would like to have this information by THIS Friday and may be given to Sandy Griffin by email or by telephone.

White Cane Day: Lion Dean read an email from Lion Wheeler stating that the first Saturday in March is scheduled to be Abilene's White Cane Day. Lion Dean and Lion Fred (as Zone Chair) will get together to coordinate contacting the Wal-Mart stores. They will keep up informed.
